[REDACTED] DPOR: [REDACTED] 1971 at Bazas, France (Department 331). [REDACTED] is French and his father is from Benin. [REDACTED] died on April 12, 2000 in Chechnya fighting with the Mujahideen. While in Chechnya, [REDACTED] was a computer expert and worked for Emir Al-Khattab Ibn, aka Al Soueilem Samer, a Saudi known as the Black Arabian and a Mujahideen leader in Chechnya.

After [REDACTED] death, [REDACTED] interviewed [REDACTED] who advised that [REDACTED] was recruited to go to Chechnya by Zacarias Moussaoui. [REDACTED] stated that Moussaoui was "the dangerous one."

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] No further information was provided by [REDACTED] at this time.

[REDACTED] has requested a photograph of each of the pages of Moussaoui's passport that show travel. They have requested the same for Hussein Al Hassan Al Attas as well as a photograph of Attas.
